

“The Sanctuary’s Two Covenants #9 Pastor Stephen Bohr” posted by Daily Hymns on YouTube on 3/3/20.

Way to go. Around 31:15 a list of what different bibles say is mentioned in regard to a verse. They are the New American Standard Bible (NASB), the New Living Translation (NLT), the English Standard Version (ESV), The Message (M), the New Century Version (NCV), the New English Translation (NET), the Revised Standard Version (RSV) and the New Revised Standard Version (NRSV).

There are several messages taught here. One would be you can't really be sure what "the Bible" says because they all say different things. Another would be that all those bibles mentioned are good bibles because Pastor Bohr uses them to arrive at a knowledge of truth (even though they all contain serious corruptions that contradict Seventh-day Adventist doctrine). Four of the bibles mentioned are honest-to-goodness Roman Catholic Bibles. Finally, since the bibles say different things and Pastor Bohr has to refer to the Greek it must mean he is seminary trained and very smart so we must believe HIM. We have to go to HIM to know what "the Bible" really says because we're not seminary trained and don't know Greek or Hebrew.

Since there are other seminary trained ministers and priests and since we apparently can't know what "the Bible" says without a seminary trained minister, why not ask them what "the Bible" says? They may know Greek and Hebrew better than Pastor Bohr does.
